

The colorful Key West-themed complex, Greater Heights, is set amidst century old live oaks in Melbourne's Historic "Booker T Washington Neighborhood." It's close to US-1 making it very convenient for tenants. The Eau Gallie Public Library is five short minutes away, as is the lovely and historic Eau Gallie Arts District.

Greater Heights is an affordable housing community designed for working families and senior citizens on modest incomes. Applicants must pass a background check, and must be deemed income eligible by the Housing Authority of Brevard County (HABC) . The HABC manages the Greater Heights wait list and assists tenants with a portion of the rent. The apartments are owned by and managed by Greater Heights, LLC.

This community, built in 2009, has 18 units. Each unit includes a range-hood, stove, and refrigerator, as well as a laundry/storage area (washer and dryer to be provided by tenant). Greater Heights features one, two, three, and four-bedroom rental units. The community includes lawn service and pest control for all its units. Heating, air-conditioning, and all appliances are electric.

The apartments are located just across the street from the Dorcas Outreach Center for Kids (DOCK), and the DOCK Teen Center. The DOCK provides after school care including free tutoring, snacks and enrichment activities for children and teenagers, and a summer camp.

Income Eligibility Requirements: This apartment community is operated pursuant to the rules and regulations of State Housing Initiatives Partnership (SHIP), the Hurricane Housing Recovery Program (HHRP), and the federal Project Based Voucher program.

Any individual or family may apply to live in our apartment community provided that the total anticipated gross annual household income falls within our guidelines. All income must be verifiable and documented.
